by registering for the canyoning activity organised by TRENTINO CLIMB (mountain guide:.....)hereby declare that I have taken note of and carefully read the following general and specific information regarding the activity I am about to undertake, as well as its characteristics, risks and the way in which it will be carried out by the accompanying Mountain Guide.

In particular, I, the undersigned, declare that I have been made aware of the following:

A) GENERAL CHARACTERISTICS OF THE ACTIVITY

Canyoning is an outdoor discipline consisting of descending narrow gorges traversed by watercourses, with obstacles mainly represented by rock jumps, waterfalls, slides and flooded corridors. The environment in which the activity takes place is by its very nature impervious and presents objective and intrinsic risks, which cannot be totally eliminated even by the intervention of the Guide and the application of the risk management procedures indicated by the very same Guide.

The most significant risks of an objective nature, connected to the type of environment and activity, include but are not limited to: a) falling stones, trees or parts of them, things moved by animals or other things falling from above; b) sudden change of weather conditions, with the presence of possible floods, change of temperatures and consequent risks of hypothermia, frostbite and drowning; c) possibility of slipping, crushing and/or entrapment of limbs during the progression or during jumping and tobogganing activities; d) unforeseen obstructions in the riverbed that force the group of participants to leave the canyon; e) incorrect use of technical equipment; f) lack of immediate accessibility by the local rescue system in case of an accident, with the consequent impossibility of evacuating the injured person in a short time.

B) EQUIPMENT PROVIDED TO MITIGATE RISKS

In order to mitigate the typical risks of the activity, participants are required to wear the equipment made available for this purpose by the organiser, consisting of a neoprene wetsuit, harness, helmet, footwear, buoyancy aid waistcoat, descender and safety lanyard and everything else indicated by the Mountain Guide.

C) PERSONAL GEAR AND EQUIPMENT

Each participant must be equipped with the following clothing: swimming costume, hiking shoes or sneakers with a treaded sole for progression along the trails and in the canyon

Flip-flops, sandals, open-toed shoes or beach shoes are not permitted.

For safety reasons, the use of helmet cameras or extendable or fixed chest supports is prohibited.

D) INITIAL BRIEFING AND GUIDE INSTRUCTIONS ALONG THE ROUTE

Before starting the activity, the Guide will give the participants a briefing on the characteristics and risks of the chosen canyon, the equipment provided and how to progress as well as to practice the activity safely. Participants must strictly follow the Guide's instructions during the briefing and along the route.

Participants are informed in advance that the dives and slides, although recreational, always present a degree of danger and are never compulsory, but that it is possible to get round the obstacle by going along one of the banks or being lowered by the Guide using a rope.

E) PHYSICAL CONDITION AND TECHNICAL ABILITIES

No special skills or experience are required for the activity, but good general fitness, normal swimming ability and the absence of claustrophobia or dizziness are required. It is also forbidden to perform the activity under the influence of alcohol or psychotropic substances.

Having taken note of the above, I, the undersigned:

- declare that I have understood the information contained in points A), B), C), D) and E) above and for all purposes confirm my willingness to participate in the activity described above in accordance with the relevant provisions and warnings;
- declare that I have understood that the activity I am going to carry out involves the assumption of objective risks that cannot be eliminated, irrespective of the action that will be taken by the accompanying Guide to minimise their occurrence, and I therefore undertake not to claim against the accompanying Guides and/or the organisation in the event of an accident;
- undertake to adhere strictly and without exception to the directives, instructions, warnings and indications that the Guide will provide both in the run-up to and during the activity until the return to the meeting point, and refrain from any personal initiative that could undermine the success of the activity;
- also undertake to accept, and not to discuss, any decision by the accompanying Guide which may lead to the suspension, interruption or modification of the activity and/or the chosen route, agreeing in advance to the validity of the reasons which will lead to such a choice;

- declare that I am in good physical and mental condition and that I am not suffering from any illnesses (such as epilepsy, tachycardia, diabetes, orthopaedic problems and/or traumas) which may adversely affect the proper performance of the activity or which may be aggravated by it or that are otherwise such as to require special arrangements to be made by the accompanying Guide or the organisation. I also declare that I have suitable experience for the activity I am going to carry out and that I am not under the influence of drugs, alcohol, psychotropic substances and/or narcotics.

In the event that these conditions are not met, I undertake to inform the Guide or organiser in good time before the start of the activity. The Guide or organiser will then be entitled to refuse and/or modify my registration, and I will in any case be obliged to accept their assessments regarding my suitability and capacity to participate in the activity and in what way;

- I undertake to wear the required and above-mentioned clothing, as well as to wear all the equipment and protective devices that will be delivered by the organisation or the accompanying Guide, following the indications and instructions that will be provided on how to use them. I also declare that the use of the equipment takes place under my own responsibility with concurrent obligation to pay compensation for any damage caused by the improper use of the equipment provided by the organisation;

- declare that I am aware that the use of seat belts is compulsory during courtesy transfers with the organiser's mini-buses, and I therefore undertake to indemnify and hold the organiser harmless from any penalties that may arise from the failure to use these safety devices;

- declare finally that I will not hold the organisation responsible for any theft or loss of my belongings or effects left in my own or the organisation's means of transport.

Separately, I, the undersigned, declare that I am aware of and authorise the organisation to publish and use for publicity and/or promotional purposes the photographs and videos taken during the activity that portray me personally, with the right to keep these images and videos in the organiser's archives. At the same time, I also undertake not to use, disclose or disseminate any photographs or videos taken personally during the activity which depict third parties or other participants without their authorisation.

Pursuant to and for the purposes of Articles 1341 and 1342 of the Italian Civil Code, I, the undersigned declare that I have carefully examined all of the above information and clauses, without exception, and that I approve all of their contents separately and specifically.

Information provided pursuant to Articles 13-14 of the GDPR 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation)

Dear Customer, pursuant to Art. 13 of EU Regulation 2016/679 and in relation to the information we will come into possession of, for the purposes of the protection of persons and other subjects regarding the processing of personal data, we inform you as follows:

1. Purpose of processing: The data you provide will be used for the scope and purposes related to the implementation of the activity for which you have registered and for any communication of other initiatives organised by TRENTINO CLIMB. 2. Processing methods: The processing of your personal data will be carried out in manual form with a paper archive and in automated form with an electronic archive, stored at the organisation's offices, using methods and tools designed to ensure adequate security and confidentiality and to prevent unauthorised access or use. 3. Provision of data: The provision of data for the purposes referred to in point 1 is obligatory and any refusal to give consent will make it impossible to accept your registration.

You may, however, revoke your consent at any time without affecting the lawfulness of the processing based on the consent given before revocation. 4. Communication and dissemination of data: The data you provide will be communicated to professionals who deal with accounting and fiscal practices on behalf of TRENTINO CLIMB. 5. Period of data retention: Your personal data will be kept for accounting purposes for a period of 10 years, after which they may be automatically deleted from the paper and electronic archives. 6. Consent for other purposes: Should it be necessary to further process your personal data for a purpose other than the one for which they were collected, the controller will provide you with all information regarding the new purpose and you will then be asked for your explicit consent to process the data for that purpose. 7. Rights of the data subject at any time

Pursuant to Articles 15 to 22 of EU Regulation No. 2016/679, you may exercise the right to:

- a) request confirmation of the existence of your personal data;
- b) obtain information about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data, the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed and, where possible, the retention period;
- c) obtain the rectification and erasure of data;
- d) obtain the restriction of processing;
- e) obtain the portability of the data, i.e. receive them from a data controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and transmit them to another data controller without hindrance;
- f) object to processing at any time and also in the case of processing for direct marketing purposes, including profiling;
- g) object to an automated decision-making process concerning individuals;
- h) request from the data controller access to and rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of their processing or to object to their processing, in addition to the right to data portability;
- i) revoke your consent at any time without affecting the lawfulness of the processing based on the consent given before revocation;
- j) lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.

You may exercise your rights by sending a written request to the e-mail address info@trentinoclimb.com.

I, the undersigned, by virtue of the information received: express my consent do not express my consent to the processing of my personal data including those considered as special categories of data.
